The shares representing the share capital are considered as securities and are governed by the provisions of the Securities Market Act and any other provisions applicable.
2. The shares, their transfer and the creation of real rights or any other encumbrances on them must be registered in the relevant book entry, pursuant to the Securities Market Act and concordant provisions.
3. However, on the basis of the principle of ownership of bank shares, the Company will keep its own register of shareholders with the effects and efficiency attributed to it by the prevailing regulations in each case. For this purpose, if the actual position of shareholders is that of persons or entities who, in accordance with their own legislation, fulfill this position as trusts, trustees or any other equivalent, the Company may require that these persons or legal entities notify it as to the actual holders of these shares, and provide the documents of transfer and encumbrance to which they refer.

Article 7.- The Position of Shareholder

2. The Company's shares will be transferred through a book transfer. The registration of the transfer in the entry in favor of the acquirer will have the same effects as the transfer of stock certificates.
3. The Company will not recognize the exercise of rights emanating from those who acquire their shares in a manner that infringes binding rules.

Article 10.- Capital Calls and Default by Shareholders

1. When shares are only partially paid, the shareholder must provide payment for the pending amount, whether in cash or non-cash, at a time decided by the Board of Directors, within a maximum of five years beginning from the date of the capital increase resolution. 2. The demand to pay unpaid contributions will be notified to the parties concerned or be announced in the Official Companies Registry Gazette. Investors must be given a deadline of at least one month from the date of notification or publication and the date of payment.
3. Shareholders are in default when the deadline stipulated for payment of unpaid capital elapses and they have not settled such payment.
4. Shareholders in default on the payment of unpaid contributions will not be able to exercise their right to vote. The amount of their shares shall be deducted from the share capital for the purpose of computing a quorum.

TITLE III.- INCREASE AND REDUCTION IN CAPITAL

Article 11.- Capital Increase

Article 12.- Authorized Capital

1. The General Meeting may delegate to the Board of Directors the power to pass resolutions, on one or more occasions, to increase the share capital, up to a particular figure, at the time and in the amount it decides, within the limits set by law. This delegation may include the right to exclude pre-emptive subscription rights.
2. The General Meeting may also delegate to the Board of Directors the power to set the date on which the resolution to increase the capital that has already been passed will be carried out, and to set its conditions with regard to all aspects not stipulated by the General Meeting, within the limits set forth in law.

Article 13.- Capital Reduction

A capital reduction may be performed by lowering the nominal value of the shares, by cancellation of shares or by combining them for exchange, and, in said cases, its purpose may be to return the value of contributions, release shareholders from their obligation to provide pending contributions, constitute or increase voluntary reserves or restore a balance between the share capital and equity of the company, in addition to any other purpose permitted by law.

TITLE IV.- BONDS

Article 14.- Issue of Debentures and Other Securities

1. The Company may issue debentures, promissory notes, preference shares and other securities in the terms and within the limits established in law.

Article 16.- The Company's Bodies

The Company's bodies are the General Shareholders' Meeting and the Board of Directors, which have the powers respectively assigned to them in these By-laws, which may be delegated in the manner and as broadly as determined therein.

SECTION I.- THE GENERAL MEETING

Article 17.- General Meeting

1. The General Meeting is governed by applicable legislation, the By-laws and the General Meeting's Regulations.
2. The shareholders called to a General Meeting may decide by a majority, except in cases where the law or these By-laws stipulate qualified majorities, on matters of their concern that legally fall within the General Meeting's competence.
3. All shareholders, including those who vote against resolutions and those who did not take part in the meeting, will be subject to the resolutions by the General Meeting, notwithstanding the rights and actions to which they are entitled by law.

Article 18.- Types of General Meetings

1. General Shareholders' Meetings may be either Ordinary or Extraordinary.
2. The Ordinary Meeting must be held within the first six (6) months of each financial year, to approve management, to approve, where appropriate, the previous year's accounts, and to decide matters relating to the distribution of earnings.
3. Any General Meeting not encompassed by the preceding paragraph shall be deemed an Extraordinary General Meeting.

Article 19.- Call for General Meeting

1. The General Shareholders' Meetings, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary, will be convened by the Board of Directors by means of a notice published in the Companies' Registry Gazette or in one of the newspapers of broad circulation in Spain, on the Company's website (www.caixabank.com), and on the website of the National Securities Market Commission, at least one month prior to the date of the meeting. Nevertheless, in those cases in which the law so permits, Extraordinary General Meetings may be called a minimum of fifteen (15) days in advance. The call supplement is not subject to this rule.
2. The convening notice will state the name of the Company, the date, time and location of the meeting, and will list all the items on the agenda and the position of the person or persons sending the notice. The date, if any, on which the Meeting will be held on second call may also be stated. At least 24 hours must elapse between scheduled first and second meetings.
3. The notice of call will also state the date by which a shareholder must have registered its shares in its name in order to participate and vote at the General Meeting, the place and manner for obtaining the full text of the documents and proposed resolutions, and the URL of the Company's website on which the information will be available. In addition, the notice must contain clear and accurate information on the steps the shareholders must take to participate and cast their votes at the General Meeting, including the matters required by law and implementing regulations.

4. Shareholders who represent at least 5% of share capital may request publication of supplementary information to the call to an Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting, to include one or more items on the agenda, provided that the new points are accompanied by a justification or, if applicable, a justified proposed resolution. That right may in no case be exercised in respect of the call of an Extraordinary General Meeting. To exercise this right, the shareholder must duly notify the Company, with said notification to be received at the Company's registered office within five (5) days following publication of the call.
5. The call supplement must be published at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date stipulated for the General Meeting. Failure to publish the call supplement within the legally stipulated term will invalidate the General Meeting.
6. Shareholders representing at least 5% of capital may present supported proposed resolutions regarding matters already included or that should be included on the agenda for the Meeting called. Exercise of this right must be by certifiable notice, which must be received at the registered office within the five (5) days following publication of the call.
7. The Company will see to dissemination of these proposed resolutions and such documentation as may be attached thereto to the other shareholders, in accordance with the requirements of law.
8. The Board of Directors may call an Extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders whenever it deems appropriate to do so in the Company's interests.

It must also call this Meeting when requested to do so by shareholders who own at least 5% of the share capital. The request must state the items to be discussed at the Meeting. In this case, a call must be issued to hold the General Meeting within the period stipulated in law. The Board of Directors will draw up the agenda, which must include the items mentioned in the request.
9. Court-ordered calls to General Meetings will be as laid down in law.
3. The contents of this article are deemed as without prejudice to the provisions established by law for specific cases.

Article 20.- Venue and Time

1. General Meetings will be held in the place and on the date stated in the notice, within the municipality in which the Company's registered offices are located. However, the Board of Directors will be entitled to choose a meeting venue at any other location within Spain, with the location to be stipulated in the notice.
2. The Meeting may choose to postpone the event for one or more consecutive days, at the behest of the Board of Directors or of a group of shareholders representing at least 25% of the Company's share capital in attendance.
3. In exceptional circumstances, in the event of unrest that substantially hinders the proper order of the Meeting, or of any other extraordinary circumstance that temporarily impedes the normal course of the Meeting, the Chairman of the Meeting may resolve to suspend the session or move the gathering to a different venue than that stipulated in the notice, for the time period deemed necessary, for the purpose of reestablishing the conditions required to continue the Meeting. In such cases, the Chairman may take whatever measures deemed appropriate, duly notifying shareholders to ensure the safety of those in attendance and avoiding a repeat of circumstances which may newly interfere with the proper order of the meeting.

Article 21.- Quorum for the General Meeting

1. The General Meeting will be validly constituted at first call when shareholders in attendance or represented by proxy hold at least 25% of subscribed capital with voting rights. The second call will be validly constituted regardless of the percentage of share capital in attendance.
2. In order for the General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary, to validly agree to issue securities, suppress or limit subscription rights, increase or reduce capital, carry out a transformation, merger, spin-off, global transfer of assets and liabilities, transfer the registered office to a foreign country or make any changes to the By-laws, shareholders at first call, whether present or proxy, representing at least 50% of subscribed capital with voting rights must be in attendance. At second call, only 25% of said capital is necessary, although when shareholders in attendance total less than 50% of subscribed capital with voting rights, the resolutions in the preceding paragraph may only be validly adopted with a favorable vote by two thirds (2/3) of the capital in attendance or represented by proxy at the Meeting.
3. Any absences occurring after the General Meeting is officially called to order will not affect the validity of the quorum.

Article 22.- Right of Attendance

1. All shareholders who, individually or in a group with other shareholders, own a minimum of one thousand (1,000) shares, may attend the General Meeting physically.
2. In order to attend the General Meeting, it will be necessary for shareholders to have registered ownership of their shares in the relevant book-entry ledger at least five (5) days in advance of the date on which the General Meeting is to be held. Shareholders entitled to attend in accordance with the above will be provided with the appropriate attendance card, which may only be replaced by a certificate of legitimacy to prove that the requirements for attendance have been met.
3. The Chairman of the General Meeting is authorized to determine compliance with the requirements for attendance at the General Meeting, but may delegate this task to the Secretary.
4. Members of the Board of Directors must attend any General Meetings, although their absence for any reason will not under any circumstances prevent the General Meeting from being validly held.
5. The Chairman may authorize persons to attend who provide services at or to the Company. The Chairman may also invite any persons he should deem appropriate, in the terms and conditions laid down in General Meeting Regulations.

Article 23.- Right of representation

1. Without prejudice to attendance through appropriate means by legal entities that are shareholders, any shareholder may be represented at the General Meeting by another person, even if this person is not a shareholder. The proxy must be granted in writing specifically for each General Meeting, in accordance with the procedures established in the By-laws and the General Meeting Regulations.
2. Any shareholder wishing to be represented by proxy at the General Meeting must have registered ownership of its shares in the relevant book-entry ledger at least five (5) days in advance of the date on which the General Meeting is to be held.
3. In order to attend the General Meeting physically, the proxy holder must be a shareholder and/or represent one or more shareholders on a combined basis holding a minimum of one thousand (1,000) shares.
4. The Chairman of the General Meeting is authorized to determine whether proxies have been validly conferred, and may delegate this task to the Secretary.
5. If there are conflicts of interest, the provisions of law and, if applicable, the General Meeting Regulations will apply. In any event, in contemplation of the possibility that a conflict may exist, proxies may be granted subsidiarily to another person.
6. The proxy's representational authority is understood as without prejudice to legal provisions concerning cases of family representation and the granting of general powers of attorney.
7. The appointment of proxies may always be revoked, and personal attendance of the party represented at the General Meeting will count as revocation.

Article 24.- Appointing Proxies and Voting through Means of Remote Communication

1. The appointment of a proxy for any kind of General Meeting, including, as the case may be, voting instructions, may be carried out by shareholders by post, e-mail or any other means of remote communication, provided the identity of the principal and the proxy is properly guaranteed, as is the security of the electronic communications.
2. Shareholders may vote on the motions concerning the items on the agenda of any General Meeting by post or by e-mail.
3. A postal vote will be cast by sending the Company a document containing the vote, with the attendance card attached.
4. Voting by sending an e-mail to the Company will only be permitted when the appropriate conditions of security and simplicity have been ensured, and the Board of Directors so decides in a resolution, subsequently notified in the call to the Meeting concerned. In this resolution, the Board of Directors will define the applicable conditions for issuing the remote vote by e-mail, necessarily including those that adequately guarantee the authenticity and identification of the voting shareholder, as well as the security of electronic communications.

5. In order to be counted as valid, a vote cast through any of the remote means referred to in the previous sections must have been received by the Company forty-eight (48) hours before the time of commencement of the General Meeting on first call. The Board of Directors may reduce the required notice, and must notify this to the same extent as in the call announcement.
6. The Board of Directors may develop and enhance the regulations on remote voting and delegation laid down in these by/laws, establishing the instructions, means, rules and procedures it deems appropriate to implement the casting of votes and appointment of proxies through remote communication means. The procedural rules adopted by the Board of Directors by virtue of the provisions of this section will be published on the Company's website.
7. Shareholders who cast their votes remotely in accordance with the provisions of this article will be considered present for the purposes of a quorum of the General Meeting concerned. As a result, appointments of proxies carried out before each vote will be considered to be revoked, and appointments arranged subsequently will be assumed not to have been carried out.
8. A vote cast through means of remote communication will be voided by physical attendance of the meeting by the shareholder who cast it or by disposal of his shares brought to the knowledge of the Company at least five days before the envisaged date of the General Meeting on first call.

Article 25.- Right to Information

Shareholders will have the right to information in the terms laid down in law. In the manner and within the terms laid down in law, the Board of Directors must provide the information that the shareholders request, pursuant to the stipulations therein, except in cases where this is legally inadmissible, and in particular when, in the Chairman's opinion, making such information public would be detrimental to the interests of the Company. This exception will not apply when the request is supported by shareholders who represent at least one quarter (1/4) of the share capital.

Article 26.- Chairman and Secretary of the General Meeting

1. General Meetings will be chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors and, in the absence thereof, by the corresponding Vice-Chairman according to the order of preference. In the absence of both, the oldest director will act as Chairman.
2. The Secretary will be the Secretary of the Board of Directors and, in the absence thereof, the Vice-Secretary according to the order of preference, if any, and in the absence thereof, the youngest director.

Article 27.- List of Those Attending

1. Before dealing with the agenda, the Secretary of the General Meeting will draw up the list of those attending, stating who each of them are or whom they represent, and the number of their own or others' shares they hold at the General Meeting.

2. The total number of shareholders present or represented by proxy will be shown at the end of the list, together with the amount of share capital they hold or represent by proxy, and the capital belonging to shareholders with voting rights will be stated.
3. If the list of those attending is not at the beginning of the minutes of the General Meeting, it will be attached as an annex signed by the Secretary with the approval of the Chairman.
4. The list of those attending may also be drawn up in the form of a file, or placed on computer media. In these cases, the means used will be stated in the minutes, and the sealed cover of the file or media will bear the relevant identification note signed by the Secretary with the approval of the Chairman.

Article 28.- Deliberation and Adoption of Resolutions

1. The Chairman will submit the items on the agenda to deliberation and manage the discussions so that the meeting is held in an orderly manner.
2. While the General Meeting is being held, shareholders may request information in the terms stated in Article 25 above and in the General Meeting Regulations.
3. Each share with a right to vote, present or represented by proxy at the General Meeting, entitles the owner to one vote.
4. Resolutions by the General Meeting will be passed following a favorable vote by the majority of the share capital present or represented by proxy. Cases in which the law or these by-laws stipulate a larger majority are excluded.
5. The resolutions adopted and the results of votes will be published on the Company's website as provided by law.

Article 29.- Minutes of the General Meeting and Certifications

1. The minutes of the General Meeting may be approved by the General Meeting itself after it has been held, and signed by the Chairman and Secretary and, failing this, within a period of fifteen (15) days, by the Chairman and two (2) comptrollers, one representing the majority and the other representing the minority. The minutes approved in either of these formats will be enforceable from the date on which they are approved.
2. Certificates of the minutes will be issued by the Secretary or the Vice-Secretary of the Board of Directors with the approval of the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman, as the case may be, and the resolutions will be issued in a public deed by those authorized to do so.
3. The Board of Directors may request that a notary public attend to draw up the minutes of the Meeting, and must do this whenever requested to do so by shareholders representing at least 1% of share capital, five (5) days in advance of the date scheduled for the Meeting. In both cases, the notary public's attestation will be treated as the Meeting's minutes.
