Article 7. Requests for conversion shall be submitted by the Stockholders, according to procedures and deadlines established by the Board of Directors. Requests for conversion which execution results in violation of the legal proportion between common and preferred stocks shall be subject to proration or draw to be structured by the Board of Directors.

Article 8. The Company shall be allowed to hire financial institution to issue Units.

Paragraph 1. The issue of the Units with the observance of legal limits shall be approved by the Board of Directors, which shall define the terms and conditions for their issue, respecting at all times the equal treatment to the holders of stocks of the same class or type.

Paragraph 2. The Units shall be book-entry Units. Each Unit shall represent one (01) common stock and four (04) preferred stocks issued by the Company in relation to the stocks held in deposit, and they shall only be issued by request of the Stockholders, with the observance of the rules to be established by the Board of Directors, according to the provisions set forth in these Bylaws.

Paragraph 3. Upon the issue of the Units, the stocks held in deposit shall be registered in deposit account to be opened in the name of the holder of the stocks with depository financial institution.

Article 9. As long as they are bound to the stock deposit certificate program referred to in this Article, the stocks issued by the Company used to form Units shall be transferred solely by means of transfer of the Units.

Paragraph 1. With exception of the cases set forth in the Paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article, the holder of Units shall be entitled to request, at any time, to the issuing and bookkeeping financial institution the cancellation of the Units and delivery of the corresponding stocks held in deposit, with the observance of the rules to be established by the Board of Directors, according to the provisions set forth in these Bylaws.

Paragraph 2. The Board of Directors of the Company shall be allowed to suspend at any time, for a specific period of time, the possibility of cancellation of Units referred to in the Paragraph 1 of this Article, in case of beginning of public offer for primary and/or secondary distribution of Units, in the local and/or international market. In such case, the period of suspension shall not exceed thirty (30) days.

Paragraph 3. The Units backed by stocks that are subject to liens, encumbrances or burdens may not be cancelled.

Article 10. The Units shall entitle their holders to the same rights, advantages and restrictions of the stocks issued by the Company which they represent.

Paragraph 1. The holder of Units shall be entitled to participate in the General Meetings of the Company and exercise all prerogatives ensured to the stocks represented by the Units, by means of substantiation of ownership.

Paragraph 2. The holders of Units may be represented in the General Meetings of the Company by Attorney-in-fact appointed according to the provisions set forth in the Article 126 of the Corporation Law.

Article 11. The following rules shall be observed in relation to the Units in case of stock split, stock reverse split, stock dividend or issue of new stocks by means of capitalization of profits or reserves:

(a) In case of increase in the number of stocks issued by the Company, the issuing and bookkeeping financial institution shall register the deposit of new stocks and credit new Units in the account of the corresponding holders, in order to reflect the new number of stocks held by the holders of Units, respecting at all times the proportion of one (01) common stock and four (04) preferred stocks issued by the Company for each Unit, and the stocks that are not sufficient to form Units shall be credited directly to the Stockholders, without the issue of Units; and

(b) in case of reduction in the number of stocks issued by the Company, the issuing and bookkeeping financial institution shall make deduction from the deposit accounts of the Units of grouped stocks, automatically cancelling the Units in number sufficient to reflect the new number of stocks held by the holders of Units, respecting at all times the proportion of one (01) common stock and four (04) preferred stocks issued by the Company for each Unit, and the remaining stocks that are not sufficient to form Units shall be delivered directly to the Stockholders, without the issue of Units.

Article 12. The following rules shall be observed in relation to the Units in the event of capital increases by means of subscription of stocks in which preemptive right has been granted to the Stockholders of the Company:

I - In case the capital increase is carried out by means of issue of common and preferred stocks of the Company in number sufficient to form new Units, the holders of Units shall be allowed to exercise the preemptive rights ensured by the stocks represented by the Units, as follows:

(a) in case the Stockholder subscribes new common and preferred stocks issued by the Company, according to the proportion of one (01) common stock for every four (04) preferred stocks issued by the Company, new Units corresponding to the stocks subscribed by the Stockholder shall be issued in his name, unless otherwise stated by the Stockholder; and

(b) the Stockholder shall be allowed to subscribe common and preferred stocks issued by the Company without the issue of Units, or only common or preferred stocks issued by the Company; and he shall inform said intention in the stock subscription list.

II - In case only common or preferred stocks are issued without the possibility of forming new Units, the holder of the Units shall be allowed to directly exercise the preemptive right ensured by each one of the stocks represented by the Units and, in such case, the issue of new Units may not be requested.

Article 13. Each common stock entitles its holder to one (01) vote in the corporate decisions.

Paragraph 1. The decisions of the General Meeting shall be taken by majority of votes, disregarding the blank votes, apart from the exceptions established by Law and the provisions set forth in the Article 36 of these Bylaws.

Paragraph 2. The approval of agreements between the Company and its Controlling Stockholders and/or companies in which they hold interest shall be taken in General Meeting, in which the voting rights shall be extended to the holders of preferred stocks.

Article 14. Each preferred stock entitles its holder to restricted vote, exclusively in relation to the following matters:

(a) transformation, merger, consolidation or split-off of the Company;

- (b) approval of agreements between the Company and the Controlling Stockholder, directly or by means of third parties, and other companies in which the Controlling Stockholder has interest whenever they are approved in General Meeting as a result of legal or statutory provision;
- (c) appraisal of properties intended to be used in the payment of increase of capital of the Company;
- (d) choice of specialized institution or company to determine the Economic Value of the Company, according to the provisions set forth in the Article 36 of these Bylaws;
- (e) amendment to or revocation of provisions of the Bylaws, which amend or change any of the requirements set forth in the Item 4.1 of the “Nível 2” Rules, exception made to the fact that said voting rights shall prevail as long as the “Nível 2” Corporate Governance Participation Agreement is in force; and
- (f) amendment to or revocation of the provisions set forth in the Article 41 of these Bylaws.

CHAPTER III General Meeting

Article 15. The General Meeting shall be held ordinarily within the four (04) months following the end of the fiscal year and, extraordinarily, as required by the corporate interests.

Paragraph 1. Only the holders of stocks whose names are recorded on the corresponding register up to three (03) days before the date of the Meeting shall be allowed to participate in it.

Paragraph 2. Without prejudice to the provisions set forth in the previous Paragraph, the Stockholder who attends the General Meeting with Identity Card and evidential document that substantiates the corresponding interest issued by the bookkeeping institution until the opening of the Meeting shall be allowed to participate in it and vote, in case he is entitled to do so.

v) creation, in each fiscal year, of the Biological Assets Reserve by means of allocation of the profits of the period, which shall contain, net of taxes, revenues of valuation, at fair value, of biological assets owned by the Company itself and revenues of valuation, at fair value, of biological assets owned by controlled companies contained in the profits under the equity accounting method acknowledged by the controlling company; the amount to be used for the creation of the Biological Assets Reserve shall be limited to the balance of the “Retained Earnings or Accrued Losses” account, after the creation of the Legal Reserve, Contingency Reserve, Tax Incentives Reserve and Realizable Profits Reserve, in case they are created;

vi) in case of expenditure as a result of reduction in the fair value of the biological assets (owned by the Company itself and by controlled companies included in the profits under the equity accounting method) contained in the profits of the fiscal year, the corresponding value, net of taxes, shall be transferred from the Biological Assets Reserve to “Retained Earnings or Accrued Losses”;

vii) the realization of the Biological Assets Reserve shall correspond to the value of exhaustion of the fair market value of the biological assets (owned by the Company itself and by controlled companies included in the equity accounting method) verified in the profits of each fiscal year, net of taxes; the realization of profit balances existing in the Biological Assets Reserve shall provoke the reversal of the corresponding values to “Retained Earnings or Accrued Losses” for allocation;

viii) the Biological Assets Reserve shall not surpass the value of the capital stock;

ix) in the event of loss in the fiscal year and, if after the realizations and reversals referred to in the Subsections vi) and vii) above, there is still debit balance in the “Retained Earnings or Accrued Losses”, the balances of the profits reserve shall be used to offset said debt balance according to the provisions of the Law, and the Biological Assets Reserve shall be the second-to-last to be used for such purpose and the Legal Reserve shall be the last one to be used for such purpose; in case the debt balance remains, Capital Reserves may be used for such purpose;

c) The General Meeting shall decide upon the form to allocate any balance of the net income verified in the fiscal year.

Paragraph 1. The Administration of the Company may prepare balance sheets twice a year or within shorter periods, and declare, ad referendum of the General Meeting, interim dividends to the Retained Earnings account or Profits Reserves existing in the last balance sheet, with the observance of legal provisions.

Paragraph 2. The General Meeting may determine the distribution of share of the net income to the Administrators of the Company, which shall be neither higher than half of the corresponding annual remuneration, nor higher than one-tenth (1/10) of the profits, whichever is lower.

Paragraph 3. The payment of dividends shall be made within sixty (60) days as of the date on which they are declared and, in any case, within the fiscal year, except in case of decision to the contrary of the General Meeting.

Article 30. After the end of each fiscal year and each quarter, the Company shall disclose the set of consolidated or individual financial statements, accompanied by the Administration report or comments on the performance and opinion or report of special review of independent auditors, as established by Law and the “Nível 2” Rules.

Sole Paragraph. The financial statements shall be also presented in the English language, and said disclosure shall take place within no longer than fifteen (15) days as of the disclosure of the financial statements in the Portuguese language, with the observance of the term established by the laws in force.

CHAPTER VIII

Liquidation

Article 31. The Company shall be dissolved and liquidated in the cases established by Law, as determined by the General Meeting, which shall appoint the liquidators to perform during the period of liquidation.

CHAPTER IX

Sale of Control of the Company

Article 32. The Sale of Company Control, whether by means of a single transaction or successive transactions shall be carried out under the precedent or subsequent condition that the Purchaser shall make a public offer to acquire the stocks of the remaining Stockholders of the Company, with the observance of the conditions and terms set forth in the applicable laws in force and the “Nível 2” Rules in order to ensure treatment equal to the one given to the Selling Controlling Stockholder.

Sole Paragraph. The public offer referred to in this Article shall also be required: (i) in case of assignment for valuable consideration of rights to subscribe stocks or other securities or rights related to securities convertible into stocks, which may result in the Change of Control of the Company; or (ii) in case of sale of control of company that holds the Power of Control of the Company; in such case, the Selling Controlling Stockholder shall be required to declare to BM&FBOVESPA the value assigned to the Company in the sale and enclose documentation that substantiates said value.

Article 33. The one who acquires the Power of Control as a result of Stock Purchase Agreement entered into with the Controlling Stockholder, involving any number of stocks, shall be compelled to: (i) make the public offer referred to in Article 32 above; (ii) pay, according to the terms set forth below, amount equivalent to the difference between the public offer price and the amount paid per stock acquired on the stock exchange within six (6) months prior to the date of acquisition of Power of Control, duly restated until the date of payment. Such amount shall be distributed among all the individuals who sold stocks of the Company on the trading days in which the Purchaser made the purchases, proportionally to the daily selling balance of each one, and BM&FBOVESPA shall be responsible for the distribution, according to its regulations; and (iii) accept the commitment set forth in the Article 41 of these Bylaws.

Article 34. The Company shall not record any transfer of Stocks to the Purchaser or to whoever comes to hold Power of Control, while they have not signed the Declaration of Consent referred in the “Nível 2” Rules and/or do not accept the commitment set forth in the Article 41 of these Bylaws.

Article 35. No Stockholders Agreement that provides for the exercise of Power of Control shall be registered at the registered office of the Company while their signatories have not signed the Declaration of Consent of the Controlling Stockholders, referred to by the “Nível 2” Rules and/or do not accept the commitment set forth in the Article 41 of these Bylaws.

CHAPTER X

Cancellation of Registration as a Listed Company

Article 36. In the public offer for the purchase of stocks to be made by the Controlling Stockholder or the Company for cancellation of registration as a listed company, the minimum price to be offered shall correspond to the Economic Value assessed in appraisal report prepared according to the terms set forth in the Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, with the observance of applicable laws and rules.

Paragraph 1. The appraisal report referred to in the caput of this Article shall be prepared by specialized institution or company with substantiated experience and independence in relation to the power of decision of the Company, its Administrators and/or Controlling Stockholder, in addition to satisfying the requirements set forth in the Paragraph 1 of Article 8 of the Corporations Law, and containing the responsibility referred to in the Paragraph 6 of the same Article.

Paragraph 2. The choice of the specialized institution or company responsible for determining the Economic Value of the Company shall be exclusively incumbent upon the General Meeting, based on the presentation, by the Board of Directors, of a three-name list. Said decision shall be made by the majority of the votes of the Stockholders that represent Outstanding Stocks attending the Meeting, regardless of blank votes, and with each stock having the right to one vote, regardless of type or class. In case the Meeting is opened on first summons, it shall rely on the attendance of Stockholders that represent no less than twenty percent (20%) of the total Outstanding Stocks or, in case it is opened on second summons, it may be held with the attendance of any number of Stockholders that represent the Outstanding Stocks.

CHAPTER XI Delisting from “Nível 2” Corporate Governance

Article 37. In case the delisting of the Company from “Nível 2” Corporate Governance is approved so that the securities issued by it are registered for trading outside the “Nível 2” Corporate Governance, or due to corporate reorganization, in which the securities of the company resulting from the restructuring are not admitted for trading on “Nível 2” Corporate Governance within one hundred and twenty (120) days as of the date of the General Meeting that approved the transaction, the Controlling Stockholder shall make public offer to acquire the stocks that belong to the remaining Stockholders of the Company, for at least the corresponding Economic Value to be determined in Appraisal Report prepared according to the provisions set forth in the Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 36, in addition to applicable laws and regulations.

Sole Paragraph. The Controlling Stockholder shall be released from the obligation to make public offer of stocks referred to in this Article in case the Company delists from the “Nível 2” Corporate Governance due to execution of agreement of participation of the Company in the special segment of BM&FBOVESPA named “Novo Mercado” (“Novo Mercado”) or in case the company that results from the corporate reorganization obtains authorization to trade securities in Novo Mercado within one hundred and twenty (120) days as of the date of the General Meeting that approved the transaction.

Article 38. In case there is no Controlling Stockholder, in the event the delisting of the Company from “Nível 2” Corporate Governance is approved so that the securities issued by it are registered for trading outside the “Nível 2” Corporate Governance, or due to corporate reorganization, in which the securities of the company resulting from this restructuring are not admitted for trading on “Nível 2” Corporate Governance within one hundred and twenty (120) days as of the date of the General Meeting that approved the transaction, the delisting shall be conditioned to public offer for purchase of stocks in the same conditions established in the Article above.

Paragraph 1. Said General Meeting shall define those responsible for making the public offer for the acquisition of Stocks, who, being present in the Meeting, shall expressly accept the obligation to make the offer.

Paragraph 2. In case there is no definition of the ones responsible for the public offer for the acquisition of stocks, in the event of corporate reorganization, in which the securities of the company resulting from this reorganization are not admitted for trading on “Nível 2” Corporate Governance, the Stockholders who voted in favor of the reorganization make the referred offer.

Article 39. The delisting from “Nível 2” Corporate Governance as a result of disregard of the obligations set forth in the “Nível 2” Rules is conditioned to the public offer for the purchase of stocks, for no less than the Economic Value of the stocks, to be determined in Appraisal Report referred to in the Article 36 of these Bylaws, with the observance of applicable laws and regulations.

Paragraph 1 The Controlling Stockholder shall make public offer of stocks set forth in the caput of this Article.

Paragraph 2. In the event there is no Controlling Stockholder and the delisting from the “Nível 2” Corporate Governance referred to in the caput results from decision of the General Meeting, the Stockholders who voted in favor of the decision that led to the corresponding non-observance shall make the public offer for the acquisition of stocks set forth in the caput.

Paragraph 3. In the event there is no Controlling Stockholder and the delisting from “Nível 2” Corporate Governance referred to in the caput results from act or fact of the Administration, the Administrators of the Company shall convene the General Meeting of Stockholders, which agenda shall be the decision on how to solve the non-compliance of obligations set forth in the “Nível 2” Rules or decide on the delisting of the Company from the “Nível 2” Corporate Governance.

Paragraph 4. In case the General Meeting set forth in the Paragraph 3 above determines the delisting from the “Nível 2” Corporate Governance, said General Meeting shall define the ones responsible for the public offer for the acquisition of stocks set forth in the caput, who, being present in the Meeting, shall expressly accept the obligation to make the offer.

CHAPTER XII

Arbitration

Article 40. The Company, its Stockholders, Administrators and the members of the Fiscal Council undertake to settle by means of arbitration, before the Market Arbitration Chamber, any and all dispute or controversy that may arise, which is related to or resulting from particularly the application, validity, effectiveness, interpretation, violation and its effects, of the provisions set forth in the Corporation Law, the Bylaws of the Company, the rules issued by the National Monetary Council, the Central Bank of Brazil and the Brazilian Securities Exchange Commission, in addition to further rules applicable to the transactions of the stock market in general, the “Nível 2” Rules, Arbitration Rules, Sanction Rules and the “Nível 2” Corporate Governance Participation Agreement.

CHAPTER XIII

Transitory Provisions

Article 41. The Controlling Stockholders undertake, on their behalf and on behalf of their successors, to exercise their voting rights so that, in case the migration of the Company to the special listing segment of BM&FBOVESPA named “Novo Mercado” is approved, the conversion of preferred stocks issued by the Company into common stocks is mandatorily carried out according to the proportion of one (01) preferred stock for each new common stock, without payment or grating of any sort of premium to any Stockholder, regardless of type, class or ownership of their stocks. In addition, the approval of any proposal or transaction which effect is the conversion of preferred stocks into common stocks in any way or the migration to the “Novo Mercado” without the observance of such equality relationship between all stocks issued by the Company shall not be allowed.

Article 42. The term of office of the Directors of the Board of Directors of the Company in progress on the date of the Meeting that approves these Bylaws shall end at the Regular Meeting that approves the financial statements related to the fiscal year of 2014, exception made to the election of Directors who represent minority Stockholders which is required and held in the first Regular Meeting that takes place after the approval of these Bylaws.
