

INTEGRATED DEVICE TECHNOLOGY, INC.
COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

Purpose

The purpose of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Integrated Device Technology, Inc. (the “Company”) is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities by (1) designing and evaluating the compensation plans, policies and programs of the Company, especially those regarding executive compensation, (2) determining the compensation of the chief executive officer and other executive officers of the Company and (3) producing an annual report on executive compensation for inclusion in the Company’s proxy materials in accordance with applicable rules and regulations. The Committee shall ensure that compensation programs are designed to encourage high performance, promote accountability and assure that employee interests are aligned with the interests of the Company’s stockholders.

In addition to the specific powers and responsibilities delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee shall also carry out and may exercise any other powers or responsibilities as are assigned by law, the Company’s charter or bylaws or as may be delegated to it by the Board from time to time. While acting within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to it, the Committee shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board. In carrying out its duties, the Committee shall endeavor to maintain free and open communication between the members of the Committee, other members of the Board, and management of the Company.

Membership

The Committee shall be comprised of at least two directors as determined by the Board, none of whom shall be an employee of the Company and each of whom shall (1) qualify as independent under the Nasdaq listing requirements, (2) be a “non-employee director” within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, (3) be an “outside director” under the regulations promulgated under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), and (4) be otherwise free from any relationship that, in the business judgment of the Board, would interfere with his or her exercise of business judgment as a Committee member. Members of the Committee must, in the reasonable business judgment of the entire Board, have a combination of business and employee-management experience that would be valuable in providing broad advice to the Board on matters related to compensation for non-employee directors and for the chief executive officer of the Company and advising the Board on executive compensation matters.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board. Unless a Chairperson of the Committee (the “Chairperson”) is designated by the Board, the Committee may designate a Chairperson by a majority vote of the full Committee membership.

Duties of the Committee

The Committee shall have the following duties:

1. Reviewing and, if necessary, revising the compensation philosophy of the Company;
2. Reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relating to the compensation of the chief executive officer, evaluating the performance of the chief executive officer in light of these goals and objectives and establishing the compensation of the chief executive officer based on such evaluation;

The Committee's responsibility for managing and reviewing employee benefit plans includes responsibility for general administration, an annual review of the plan, the setting of performance targets when appropriate, and approval of any and all changes, including termination of compensation plans when appropriate.

All annual plan reviews should include reviewing the plan's administrative costs, reviewing current plan features relative to any proposed new features, assessing the performance of the plan's internal and external administrators if any duties have been delegated, and formally adopting any plan changes by resolution of the Committee.

Delegation of Duties

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee shall, subject to the following paragraphs, be entitled to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee. All proposed delegations must be adopted by a resolution of the Committee and reviewed for compliance with the relevant plan and the Delaware General Corporation Law by the Company's legal, tax and accounting departments before they are voted upon at meetings. The resolution shall specify which duties are being delegated, to whom the duties are delegated, and which oversight powers the Committee retains.

The Committee shall not delegate any matters that involve executive compensation or for any matters where it has determined such compensation is intended to comply with Section 162(m) of the Code ("Section 162(m)").

The Committee shall, without delegation:

1. certify that any and all performance targets used for any performance-based equity compensation plans have been met before payment of any executive bonus or compensation or exercise of any executive award granted under any such plan(s);

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate, including but not limited to, any non-management director that is not a member of the Committee.

The Committee shall have the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company's bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

The Committee shall have the sole authority, as it deems appropriate, to retain and/or replace, as needed, any independent counsel, compensation and benefits consultants and other outside experts or advisors that the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company's regular legal counsel or other advisors
