

Advent Software, Inc.

Charter for the Compensation Committee

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVES.

The purpose of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Advent Software, Inc. (the "Company") shall be to:

1. Provide oversight of the Company's compensation policies, plans and benefits programs;
2. Assist the Board in discharging its responsibilities relating to (i) oversight of the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO") and other executive officers (including officers reporting under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), and (ii) approving and evaluating the executive officer compensation plans, policies and programs of the Company; and
3. Review and recommend for Board approval the Company's equity compensation plans for its executive officers and employees.

One of the Compensation Committee's objectives shall be to use compensation to align the interests of the executive officers with the long-term interests of the Company's stockholders, thereby enhancing stockholder value. The compensation programs for the Company's executive officers shall be designed to attract, motivate and retain talented executives responsible for the success of the Company and shall be determined within a competitive framework and based on the achievement of the Company's overall financial results and individual contributions.

1. Membership and Organization.

- a. Composition. The Compensation Committee members shall be appointed by, and shall serve at the discretion of, the Board. The Compensation Committee shall consist of no fewer than two members of the Board. The Board may designate one member of the Committee as its chair. Members of the Compensation Committee must meet the following criteria:
 - the independence requirements of the NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc.;
 - the non-employee director definition of Rule 16b-3 promulgated under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; and
 - the outside director definition of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.
- b. Meetings. It is anticipated that the Compensation Committee will meet at least four times each year and at such other times deemed necessary to fulfill its responsibilities. The Compensation Committee will report its findings to the full Board at each scheduled Board meeting and maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

- c. Compensation. Members of the Compensation Committee shall receive such fees, if any, for their service as Compensation Committee members as may be determined by the Board in its sole discretion.

2. Responsibilities and Duties.

- The Compensation Committee shall annually review and approve for the CEO and the executive officers of the Company (i) the annual base salary, (ii) the annual incentive bonus, including the specific goals and amount, (iii) equity compensation, (iv) any employment agreement, severance arrangement and change in control agreement/provision, (v) any signing bonus or payment of relocation costs and (vi) any other benefits, compensation or arrangements.
- Specifically with respect to the CEO, the Compensation Committee shall review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the CEO, evaluate his or her performance in light thereof, and consider identified and other factors related to the performance of the Company.
- The Compensation Committee shall oversee the Company's equity compensation plans for its employees.
- The Compensation Committee shall provide oversight of the Company's overall compensation plans and benefits programs and review and approve the Company's equity compensation grants to executive officers and employees and recommend equity compensation plans for Board approval. The Compensation Committee shall also make recommendations to the Board with respect to improvements or changes to such plans when appropriate.
- The Compensation Committee shall evaluate on a periodic basis the competitiveness of (i) the compensation of the CEO and the executive officers of the Company and (ii) the Company's overall compensation plans.
- The Compensation Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate.
- The Compensation Committee shall make regular reports to the Board.
