

INTERCHANGE FINANCIAL SERVICES CORPORATION NOMINATING & CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

Purpose

The purpose of the Nominating/Governance Committee (the “Committee”) shall be to assist the board of directors (the “Board”) of Interchange Financial Services Corporation (the “Company”) in identifying qualified individuals to become Board members and officers of the Company, in determining the composition of the Board and its committees, in developing and implementing a process to assess Board effectiveness and in developing and implementing the Company’s corporate governance guidelines.

Membership and Appointment

The Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members, each of whom shall meet the criteria for independence established by the rules and regulations of the Nasdaq Stock Market and who the Board has affirmatively determined does not have a material relationship which, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director. Members of the Committee shall be appointed annually by the Board and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no director shall serve on the Committee in any capacity in any year during which such director's term as a director is scheduled to expire.

Meetings and Procedures

The Committee shall have a chairperson who must, and a secretary who may but need not be, a member of the Committee. The Board shall designate the chairperson of the Committee and the Committee shall designate the secretary for the Committee. If the Board does not designate a chairperson, or if the chairperson shall not be present at a meeting, the Committee shall select its own chairperson.

The Committee shall establish its own rules of procedure, which shall be consistent with the bylaws of the Company and this Charter. The Committee shall meet at least two times annually at regularly scheduled times and places determined by the Committee’s chairperson, and may meet more frequently, or take action by unanimous written consent, as circumstances require. A meeting may be called by the chairperson of the Committee or by majority of the members of the Committee. Notice of any meeting shall be given by the person or persons calling the meeting given to each other member of the Committee at least 48 hours prior to the meeting. Notice may be given in the same fashion as permitted for notice of Board meetings pursuant to the Company’s bylaws and applicable law. A meeting shall be deemed properly called if each member of the Committee shall have received notice given as aforesaid or, prior to the conclusion of the meeting, shall have signed a written waiver of notice.

A quorum shall consist of at least a majority of the voting members of the Committee. The vote of a majority of the voting members present at any meeting at which a quorum exists, including the chairperson of the committee who shall be eligible to vote, shall constitute the action of the Committee.

The Committee may request that any directors, officers or employees of the Company, or other persons whose advice and counsel are sought by the Committee, attend any meeting of the Committee to provide such pertinent information as the Committee requests.

Following each of its meetings, the Committee shall report its actions and recommendations to the Board. The secretary of the Committee shall keep written minutes of its meetings, which minutes shall be subject to approval by the members of the Committee and, once approved, shall be maintained with the books and records of the Company.

The Committee shall have the authority to delegate any of its responsibilities to subcommittees, as the committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion.

Nominations by Shareholders

Shareholders may recommend nominees for election to the Board, in a manner consistent with the Article II, Section 11 of the Company's bylaws, this Charter and any guidelines established by the Committee.
