

NABORS INDUSTRIES LTD.

GOVERNANCE AND NOMINATING COMMITTEE CHARTER

Purpose of the Governance and Nominating Committee

The Board of Directors has established the Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board to identify and recommend candidates to serve on the Company's Board of Directors; to recommend directors to serve on the various committees of the Board; and to take a leadership role in shaping the corporate governance of the Company.

Members of the Governance and Nominating Committee

The Committee must be comprised of at least three members of the Board. The Committee must be comprised solely of independent directors, determined in accordance with the Company's Guidelines on Significant Corporate Governance Issues and the requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.

No Committee member may participate in any discussion with respect to, or vote on, any matter in which he or she is not independent. If there is any basis for believing a Committee member is not independent, the facts and circumstances should be reported to the Board, and no action should be taken until the Board, or a committee of independent directors, has determined that the Committee member is independent.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed annually by the Board upon the recommendation of the Governance and Nominating Committee in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer. Each member of the Committee shall serve until such member's successor is elected and qualified or until such director's earlier resignation or removal. Any member may resign his or her position as a member of the Committee upon notice given in writing or by electronic transmission to the Board. A member may be removed from the Committee upon the majority vote of the Board.

Responsibilities of the Governance and Nominating Committee

The responsibilities of a member of the Committee are in addition to those responsibilities set out for a member of the Board. Each member of the Committee may be compensated separately for his or her service, in accordance with the Company's policies regarding director compensation. The Company's General Counsel will prepare a memorandum on a regular basis setting forth the standards applicable to the members of the Committee under applicable laws and regulations.

In addition to the matters set forth herein, the Committee will perform such other functions as required by law, the listing requirements of any stock exchange on which the Company's securities are listed, the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bye Laws, and Board resolutions.

The Committee is responsible to the Board for the following activities:

- To recommend directors' compensation and benefit arrangements to the full Board in consultation with the Compensation Committee;
- To determine the skills and qualifications of directors most needed to strengthen the Board;
- To work together with the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer to identify suitably qualified board candidates and, following investigation and interviews, make recommendations to the Board for approval;
- To monitor individual director performance and full Board performance, counsel directors whose performance requires improvement and, when necessary, steer low-performing directors away from standing for reelection (or, if not standing for reelection that year, to encourage them to retire prior to the end of their term.) To recommend termination of board membership of directors when appropriate. Members of the Committee who will stand for reelection in the next Committee year will recuse themselves from discussions concerning the evaluation of those directors standing for reelection;
- To oversee the evaluation of the Board and management;
- To recommend, in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer, the Committees of the Board, their responsibilities, membership (including filling vacancies) and Chairpersons to the full Board for consideration and appointment;
- To the extent appropriate, review potential conflicts of interests of directors which might interfere with Board service and to review the fairness of any transactions between the Company and any director;
- To make determinations, with the advice of legal counsel, concerning the "independence" of Board members for corporate governance purposes and to make other determinations as required under the Company's governance programs;
- To initially develop and recommend to the Board appropriate corporate governance policies and, once developed, to review and make recommendations to the Board for changes as appropriate. To monitor compliance with corporate governance policies and the Company's Code of Business Conduct (and approve waivers to the Code where appropriate);
- To consult with directors regarding acceptance of board positions with non-Nabors, for-profit companies, and consider any conflict of interest;
- To oversee the training and orientation of directors; and

- To review the appropriateness of continued Board membership of a member who experiences a change in employment, board membership of another company, or other relevant matter.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet as frequently and at such times as necessary to carry out its responsibilities; however, the committee shall normally meet at least two times each year. The Chair of the Committee will preside at each meeting of the Committee and shall set the length of each meeting and the agenda of items to be addressed at each meeting.

Subcommittees

The Committee may, by resolution passed by a majority of the Committee, designate one or more subcommittees, each subcommittee to consist of one or more of the members of the Committee. The Committee may delegate such authority to a subcommittee as the Committee deems appropriate.

Reporting

The Committee shall maintain written minutes of all meetings and consent actions, which shall be recorded or filed with the books and records of the Company and made available to the Board. The Committee will make regular reports to the Board with respect to its activities.

Assistance from Others

The Committee may engage external advisors and consultants, to the extent determined appropriate by the Committee, to facilitate the performance of the functions of the Committee. All external advisors engaged by the Committee shall report directly to the members of the Committee. Specifically, the Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any consultant to be used to assist in the search and evaluation of potential directors and members of Board committees and shall have the sole authority to approve the consultant's fees and other retention terms. The Committee has the same authority to retain other experts to advise or assist it, including independent counsel or others. The Committee may also request reports from the executive officers or any other officer of the Company.

Performance Evaluation

Periodically, at such time deemed appropriate by the Committee or the Board, the Committee shall review and assess the adequacy and appropriateness of this charter and the Committee's own performance. The results of such evaluation and any proposed changes shall be presented to the full Board.
