

AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL GROUP, INC.
NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER
(Amended March 15, 2006)

I. Purpose of Committee

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of American International Group, Inc. (“AIG”) (a) identifies individuals qualified to become Board members, consistent with the criteria approved by the Board, and recommends individuals to the Board for nomination, election, or appointment as members of the Board and its committees, (b) advises the Board on corporate governance matters, including developing and recommending to the Board a set of Corporate Governance Guidelines for AIG and (c) oversees the evaluation of the Board of AIG and its committees.

II. Committee Membership

The Committee shall be comprised of at least three directors, each of whom shall serve at the pleasure of the Board and be “independent” under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (“NYSE”) and any other applicable, law, rule, or regulation. The Board shall appoint a Chairman of the Committee (“Chairman”).

Determinations of independence shall be made by the Board as the Board interprets such qualifications in its business judgment and in accordance with applicable law and regulation and Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and NYSE rules and standards.

III. Organization

The committee will meet at least four times each year or more frequently as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its responsibilities.

The Chairman shall, in consultation with other Committee members, set the agenda for and preside at meetings of the Committee. The Secretary of AIG or another designated individual shall record and keep minutes of all Committee meetings.

IV. Committee Duties and Responsibilities

The following are the duties and responsibilities of the Committee:

Nominations.

- A. To identify nominees qualified to become Board members for recommendation to the Board and, in each case, to provide the Board the Committee’s assessment of whether such nominee is independent and, in respect of members of the Audit Committee, whether such nominee is an “Audit Committee Financial Expert” and/or “financially literate.” Nominees should meet the criteria set forth in AIG’s Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Committee will consider candidates proposed by shareholders and may consider candidates proposed by management and others.
- B. To review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the composition and Chairmen of committees of the Board. This review will be conducted annually.

Corporate Governance.

- A. To develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines, to assist the Board in interpreting those guidelines, to review and reassess the adequacy of those guidelines at least annually, and to recommend any changes to those guidelines to the Board.
- B. To oversee, in such manner as it deems appropriate, the evaluation of the Board and committees of the Board.
- C. To make recommendations to the Board from time to time as to changes that the Committee believes to be desirable to the size and composition of the Board or any committee thereof.
- D. To review the charters and, if necessary or desirable, to recommend to the Board changes in the duties and responsibilities of the committees, or the dissolution of committees or creation of additional committees.
- E. To advise the Board on corporate governance matters, including recommending practices that enable the Board to comply with applicable laws and regulations.
- F. To review proposals submitted by shareholders for action at meetings of shareholders and make recommendations to the Board for action with respect thereto.
- G. To report to the Board on the number, substance and status of such proposals submitted by shareholders (or proposals that shareholders have indicated they may submit).
- H. To reconsider any shareholder proposal that was not supported by the Board but received approval of a majority of the votes cast at the relevant shareholders meeting (at which a quorum was present) and recommend any action to be taken with respect thereto. Such action may include a member of the Committee meeting with the shareholder proponent of such a proposal.
- I. To make recommendations to the Board regarding action to be taken in response to the tender of resignation by a director in the circumstances required by AIG's Corporate Governance Guidelines.
- J. Upon request of the Board, to review requests by a director, executive officer, or senior financial officer to waive a provision of the AIG Director, Executive Officer and Senior Financial Officer Code of Business Conduct and Ethics or AIG's Code of Conduct, including, in each case, any requests with respect to an actual or potential conflict of interest, and to recommend to the Board any action with respect thereto.

Other Duties and Responsibilities.

- A. To present a summary of the actions taken at each Committee meeting to the Board.
- B. To exercise such other powers and authority as the Board shall, from time to time, confer upon it.

- C. To take such actions and make such determinations and recommendations as required to comply with the rules of the SEC relating to nominating and governance committee functions and communications between the Board and shareholders.
- D. To (i) prepare a report of the Committee, if the Committee deems it to be appropriate or desirable, for inclusion in AIG's annual proxy statement and (ii) approve the disclosure with respect to the Committee and its operations required by the rules of the SEC to be included in AIG's annual proxy statement.

V. Committee Self-Assessment

The Committee shall conduct an annual evaluation of its performance and report the results of such review to the Board. In connection with that annual review, the Committee shall also recommend to the Board any modifications of this Charter that the Committee deems necessary or appropriate. The format of the self-assessment shall be determined by the Committee.

VI. Resources and Authority of the Committee

The Committee shall have direct access to, and complete and open communication with, senior management and may obtain advice and assistance from internal legal, accounting, and other advisors to assist it. In performing its functions, the Committee is entitled to rely on the findings of fact, advice, reports and opinions of management as well as legal, accounting and other advisors retained by AIG. The Committee may retain, if appropriate, independent legal, accounting, and other advisors to assist it, and may determine the compensation of such advisors, and AIG shall be responsible for any costs or expenses so incurred.
