

BIOMED REALTY TRUST, INC.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of BioMed Realty Trust, Inc. (the “Company”) has adopted the following Corporate Governance Guidelines (the “Guidelines”) to assist the Board in the exercise of its responsibilities and to serve the interests of the Company and its stockholders. These Guidelines should be interpreted in the context of all applicable laws and the Company’s charter, bylaws and other corporate governance documents. These Guidelines acknowledge the leadership exercised by the Board’s standing committees and their chairs and are intended to serve as a flexible framework within which the Board may conduct its business and not as a set of legally binding obligations. The Guidelines are subject to modification from time to time by the Board as the Board may deem appropriate in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders or as required by applicable laws and regulations.

These Guidelines are available on the Company’s website at “www.biomedrealty.com.” The Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K will state the foregoing.

The Board

Size of the Board

The Company’s bylaws provide that the number of directors will be fixed from time to time by the Board, but in no event will be less than the minimum number required by the Maryland General Corporation Law nor more than 15. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will periodically review the size of the Board, and determine the size that is most effective in relation to future operations.

Independence of the Board

The Board will be comprised of a majority of directors who qualify as independent directors (the “Independent Directors”) under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) and the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. No more than two management executives who are employed by the Company or who were employed by the Company in the previous three years may serve on the Board at the same time.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will review annually the relationships that each director has with the Company (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). Following such annual review, only those directors who the Board affirmatively determines have no material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company) will be considered Independent Directors, subject to additional qualifications prescribed under the listing standards of the NYSE. The basis for any determination that a relationship is not material will be published in the Company’s annual proxy statement or, if the Company does not file an annual proxy statement, in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Separate Sessions of Non-Management Directors

The non-management directors will meet in executive session without management directors or management present on a regularly scheduled basis. The name of the chair of such meetings will be published along with a means for stockholders to communicate with the non-management directors. The non-management directors will review the Company's implementation of and compliance with its Guidelines and consider such matters as they may deem appropriate at such meetings. Non-management directors are all directors who are not Company officers (as that term is defined in Rule 16a-1(f) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), including such directors who are not independent by virtue of a material relationship, former status or family membership, or for any other reason.

In addition, if the non-management directors include directors who are not also Independent Directors, the Independent Directors shall also meet separately at least once per year in executive session.

Director Qualification Standards

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for reviewing with the Board, on an annual basis, the appropriate characteristics, skills and experience required for the Board as a whole and its individual members. In evaluating the suitability of individual candidates (both new candidates and current Board members), the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, in recommending candidates for election, and the Board, in approving (and, in the case of vacancies, appointing) such candidates, take into account many factors, including ability to make independent analytical inquiries, general understanding of marketing, finance and other elements relevant to the success of a publicly-traded company in today's business environment, experience in the Company's industry and with relevant social policy concerns, understanding of the Company's business on a technical level, other board service, educational and professional background and diversity of experience, profession and background, both on an individual level and in relation to the Board as a whole. Each nominee must also possess fundamental qualities of intelligence, honesty, good judgment, high ethics and standards of integrity, fairness and responsibility. The Board evaluates each individual in the context of the Board as a whole, with the objective of assembling a group that can best perpetuate the success of the business and represent stockholder interests through the exercise of sound judgment using its diversity of experience in these various areas. In determining whether to recommend a director for re-election, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also considers the director's past attendance at meetings and participation in and contributions to the activities of the Board.

Selection of New Directors

The entire Board will stand for election by the stockholders of the Company each year at the Company's annual meeting. Each year, at the annual meeting, the Board will recommend a slate of directors for election by the stockholders. In accordance with the Bylaws of the Company, the Board will also be responsible for filling vacancies or newly created directorships on the Board that may occur between annual meetings of stockholders. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for identifying, screening and recommending candidates to the entire Board for Board membership.

Selection of Chairman of the Board

The Board will select the Chairman of the Board in accordance with the Company's Bylaws.

Majority Voting

If an incumbent director fails to receive the required vote for re-election in accordance with the Bylaws of the Company, he or she shall offer to resign from the Board, and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider such offer to resign, will determine whether to accept such director's resignation and will submit such recommendation for consideration by the Board. The director whose resignation is under consideration shall not participate in any deliberation or vote of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee or Board regarding that resignation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that no nominee for director receives the vote required in the Company's Bylaws, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall make a final determination as to whether to recommend to the Board whether to accept any or all resignations, including those resignations from members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board may consider any factors they deem relevant in deciding whether to accept a director's resignation. Within 90 days after the date of certification of the election results, the Board will disclose its decision in a press release, filing with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or by other public announcement. If such incumbent director's resignation is not accepted by the Board, such director will continue to serve until his or her successor is elected and qualifies, or his or her death, resignation, retirement or removal, whichever event shall occur first. If a director's resignation is accepted by the Board, or if a nominee for director is not elected and the nominee is not an incumbent director, then the Board, in its sole discretion, may fill any resulting vacancy pursuant to the Company's Bylaws.

Limitations on Other Board Service

No director may serve on the boards of directors of more than two other public companies, unless the Board determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such director to serve on the Board.

In addition, the members of the Audit Committee may not serve on the audit committees of the boards of directors of more than two other public companies at the same time as they are serving on the Audit Committee, unless the Board determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such members to effectively serve on the Audit Committee and such determination is disclosed in the Company's annual proxy statement.

The Board does not believe that its members should be prohibited from serving on boards of other organizations that are not public companies and has not adopted any guidelines limiting such activities. However, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board will take into account the nature of and time involved in a director's service on other such boards and/or committees in evaluating the suitability of individual director candidates and current directors and making its recommendations to the Company's stockholders.

Service on other boards and/or committees should be consistent with the Company's conflict of interest policies set forth below.

Changes in Director Employment

When a director resigns or materially changes his or her position with his or her employer or becomes aware of circumstances that may materially adversely reflect upon the director or the Company, the director should notify the Board of such circumstances. The Board, in its discretion, may remove a director if the Board determines that such resignation, change in position or other circumstances would materially impact such director's ability to properly serve the Company.

Director Tenure

The Board believes it should reflect a balance between experience and learning on the one hand, and the need for renewal and fresh perspectives on the other. It is the general policy of the Board that non-employee directors shall not stand for re-election to the Board at the next annual meeting after having served ten (10) consecutive years; provided that the Board may make exceptions to this term limitation on a case-by-case basis after considering all of the applicable facts and circumstances.

Retirement Age

The Company has no mandatory retirement age for its directors.

Director Responsibilities

The business and affairs of the Company will be managed by or under the direction of the Board, including through one or more of its committees as set forth in the Bylaws and committee charters. Each director is expected to spend the time and effort necessary to properly discharge his or her responsibilities. These include:

- (1) overseeing the conduct of the Company's business, to evaluate whether the business is being properly managed;
- (2) reviewing and, where appropriate, approving the Company's major financial objectives, plans and actions;
- (3) reviewing and, where appropriate, approving major changes in, and determinations of other major issues respecting, the appropriate auditing and accounting principles and practices to be used in the preparation of the Company's financial statements;

- (4) reviewing and, where appropriate, approving major changes in, and determinations under the Guidelines, Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and other Company policies;
- (5) reviewing and, where appropriate, approving actions to be undertaken by the Company that would result in a material change in the financial structure or control of the Company, the acquisition or disposition of any businesses or asset(s) material to the Company or the entry of the Company into any major new line of business;
- (6) with respect to the Independent Directors, together with the Compensation Committee, regularly evaluating the performance and approving the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer;
- (7) with the input of the Chief Executive Officer and the Compensation Committee, regularly evaluating the performance of principal senior executives;
- (8) planning for succession with respect to the position of Chief Executive Officer and monitoring management's succession planning for other key executives; and
- (9) ensuring that the Company's business is conducted with the highest standards of ethical conduct and in conformity with applicable laws and regulations.

Compensation

The Company's executive officers shall not receive additional compensation for their service as directors. Senior management of the Company will report once a year to the Compensation Committee regarding the status of the Company's non-management director compensation in relation to other U.S. companies of comparable size and the Company's competitors. Such report will include consideration of both direct and indirect forms of compensation to the Company's non-management directors, including any charitable contributions by the Company to organizations in which a non-management director is involved. Following a review of the report, the Compensation Committee will recommend any changes in non-management director compensation to the Chairman of the Board, which changes will be approved or disapproved by the Board after a full discussion.

Stock Ownership

The Company has adopted equity ownership guidelines for its executive officers and non-employee directors, setting forth the expectations that each executive officer and non-employee director hold shares of the Company's common stock or securities convertible or exchangeable into shares of the Company's common stock equal to values as specified in the applicable guidelines.

Conflicts of Interest

Directors are expected to avoid any action, position or interest that conflicts with the interests of the Company or gives the appearance of a conflict. If an actual or potential conflict of interest develops, the director should immediately report the matter to the Chairman of the Board. Any significant conflict must be resolved or the director should resign. If a director has a personal interest in a matter before the Board, the director will disclose the interest to the Board, excuse himself or herself from discussion on the matter and not vote on the matter. Further, directors are expected to be familiar with and abide by the conflict of interest provisions of the Maryland General Corporation Law.

Board Orientation and Continuing Education of Board Members

The Company provides new directors with a director orientation program to familiarize them with, among other things, the Company's business, strategic plans, significant financial, accounting and management issues, compliance programs, conflicts policies, Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, Guidelines, principal officers, internal auditors and independent auditors.

The Company will make available to directors continuing education programs, as management or the Board determines desirable.

Interaction with Institutional Investors, the Press and Customers

The Board believes that management speaks for the Company. Each director should refer all inquiries from institutional investors, the press or customers to management. Individual Board members may, from time to time at the request of management, meet or otherwise communicate with various constituencies that are involved with the Company. If comments from the Board are appropriate, they should, in most circumstances, come from the Chairman of the Board.

Board Access to Senior Management

The Board will have complete access to Company management in order to ensure that directors can ask any questions and receive all information necessary to perform their duties. Directors should exercise judgment to ensure that their contact with management does not distract managers from their jobs or disturb the business operations of the Company. Such contact, if in writing, should be copied to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Board Access to Independent Advisors

The Board committees may hire independent advisors as set forth in their applicable charters. The Board as a whole shall have access to such advisors and such other independent advisors that the Company retains or that the Board considers necessary to discharge its responsibilities.

Annual Self-Evaluation

Following the end of each fiscal year, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will oversee an annual assessment by the Board of the Board's performance. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will be responsible for establishing the evaluation criteria and implementing the process for such evaluation, as well as considering other corporate governance principles that may, from time to time, merit consideration by the Board.

The assessment should include a review of any areas in which the Board or management believes the Board can make a better contribution to the governance of the Company, as well as a review of the committee structure and an assessment of the Board's compliance with the principles set forth in these Guidelines. The purpose of the review will be to improve the performance of the Board as a unit, and not to target the performance of any individual Board member. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will utilize the results of the Board evaluation process in assessing and determining the characteristics and critical skills required of prospective candidates for election to the Board.

Board Meetings

Frequency of Meetings

The Board will meet at least once annually. In addition, special meetings may be called from time to time as determined by the needs of the business. It is the responsibility of the directors to attend meetings.

Director Attendance

A director is expected to spend the time and effort necessary to properly discharge his or her responsibilities. Accordingly, a director is expected to regularly prepare for and attend meetings of the Board and all committees on which the director sits (including separate meetings of non-management directors and the Independent Directors), with the understanding that, on occasion, a director may be unable to attend a meeting. A director who is unable to attend a meeting is expected to notify the Chairman of the Board or the chair of the appropriate committee in advance of such meeting, and, whenever possible, participate in such meeting via teleconference.

Each director must attend at least 75% of the aggregate number of Board and committee meetings in each fiscal year for which he or she is a member. Absent an excuse that is acceptable to the Board in its discretion, any director failing to attend at least 75% of such meetings will not be nominated for re-election to the Board at the next annual meeting.

Attendance of Non-Directors

The Board encourages the Chairman of the Board or the chair of any committee to bring Company management and outside advisors or consultants from time to time into Board and/or committee meetings to provide insight into items being discussed by the Board which involve the manager, advisor or consultant, and make presentations to the Board on matters which involve the manager, advisor or consultant. Attendance of non-directors at Board meetings is at the discretion of the Board.

Agendas

The Chairman establishes the agenda for each Board meeting with input from management and, as necessary or desired, from the other directors.

Advance Receipt of Meeting Materials

Information regarding the topics to be considered at a meeting is essential to the Board's understanding of the business and the preparation of the directors for a productive meeting. To the extent feasible, the meeting agenda and any written materials relating to each Board meeting will be distributed to the directors sufficiently in advance of each meeting to allow for meaningful review of such agenda and materials by the directors. Directors are expected to have reviewed and be prepared to discuss all materials distributed in advance of any meeting.

Committee Matters

Number, Name, Responsibilities and Independence of Committees

The Board currently has three standing committees, each composed entirely of Independent Directors. From time to time, the Board may form a new committee or disband a current committee, depending upon the circumstances. Each committee will perform its duties as assigned by the Board in compliance with the Company's Bylaws and the committee's charter. The current standing committees are:

(1) Audit Committee. The function of the Audit Committee is to help ensure the integrity of the Company's financial statements, the qualifications and independence of the Company's independent auditor and the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors. The Audit Committee also selects, assists and meets with the independent auditor, oversees each annual audit and quarterly review, establishes and maintains the Company's internal audit controls and prepares the report that federal securities laws require be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

(2) Compensation Committee. The function of the Compensation Committee is to review and approve the compensation and benefits of the Company's executive officers, evaluate and approve the Company's compensation plans, policies and programs, review and discuss with management the Company's compensation discussion and analysis to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement or Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and produce an annual report on executive compensation for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement or Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.

(3) Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The function of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is to identify qualified candidates to become Board members; select nominees for election as directors at the next annual meeting of stockholders (or special meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected); consider offers from Board members to resign pursuant to the majority voting policy in these Guidelines and make recommendations to the Board regarding such offers; select candidates to fill any vacancies on the Board; develop and recommend to the Board the Guidelines; and oversee the evaluation of the Board and management of the Company.

Assignment and Rotation of Committee Members

The Board appoints, on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, committee members and committee chairs according to criteria set forth in the applicable committee charter and such other criteria that the Board determines to be appropriate in light of the responsibilities of each committee. Committee membership and the position of committee chair will not be rotated on a mandatory basis unless the Board determines that rotation is in the best interest of the Company. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has adopted a guideline to consider rotating committee members every five years and committee chairs every three years.

Each member of the Audit Committee must satisfy the independence requirements of the NYSE and Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and must be financially literate, as determined by the Board in its business judgment, or must become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment. At least one member of the Audit Committee must have accounting or related financial management expertise as determined by the Board in its business judgment. In addition, at least one member of the Audit Committee must meet the definition of “audit committee financial expert” as determined by the Board in its business judgment in accordance with Item 407(d) of Regulation S-K, or the Company shall disclose in its applicable filings pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the reasons why at least one member of the Audit Committee is not an “audit committee financial expert.”

Frequency of Committee Meetings

The minimum number of times each committee must meet annually is specified in such committee’s charter. In addition, special meetings may be called by the chair of the committee from time to time as determined by the needs of the business. It is the responsibility of the directors to attend the meetings of the committees on which they serve.

Committee Agendas

The chair of each committee, in consultation with the appropriate members of the committee, will develop his or her committee’s agenda.

Committee Self-Evaluations

Following the end of each fiscal year, each committee will review its performance and charter and recommend to the Board any changes it deems necessary.

Leadership Development

Annual Review of Chief Executive Officer

The Board, with input from the Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer, shall annually establish the performance criteria (including both long-term and short-term goals) to be considered in connection with the Chief Executive Officer's next annual performance evaluation. At the end of each year, the Chief Executive Officer shall make a presentation or furnish a written report to the Compensation Committee indicating his or her progress against such established performance criteria. Thereafter, with the Chief Executive Officer absent, the Compensation Committee shall meet to review the Chief Executive Officer's performance. The results of the review and evaluation shall be communicated to the Board and the Chief Executive Officer by the chair of the Compensation Committee.

Succession Planning

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee works on a periodic basis with the Chief Executive Officer to review, maintain and revise, if necessary, the Company's succession plan upon the Chief Executive Officer's retirement and in the event of an unexpected occurrence. The Chief Executive Officer shall report annually to the Board on succession planning for the Chief Executive Officer and senior management positions, including a discussion of assessments, leadership development plans and other relevant factors.

Management Development

The Board will ensure that a satisfactory system is in effect for the education, development and orderly succession of senior and mid-level managers throughout the Company.

Oversight of Risk Management

The Board and the Board committees shall have an active role in overseeing management of the Company's risks. The Board shall regularly review information regarding the Company's credit, liquidity and operations, as well as the risks associated with each. The Company's Compensation Committee shall be responsible for overseeing the management of risks relating to the Company's executive compensation plans and arrangements. The Company's Audit Committee shall oversee management of financial risks. The Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall manage risks associated with the independence of the Board, adherence to corporate governance standards, and management development and leadership succession policies and programs. While each committee shall be responsible for evaluating certain risks and overseeing the management of such risks, the entire Board shall be regularly informed through committee reports about such risks.
